Notes for Robert Samuel C. Martin:

Hubert Martin's father, Robert Samuel C. Martin (115), died of typhoid fever in 1881 when he was only 26 years old. Samuel's father was George Washington Martin (118) (1825 - 1918), (probably known as "Wash") who lived in what is now Alexander County, but was formerly Iredell County.

The 1880 census for Alexander County, North Carolina shows "Sam" Martin, 22, his wife R.M.F. (Rebecca Melvina Florentine), 23 and "H" (our Hubert) 5/12 (5 months). In the adjoining household is his father, Washington Martin, 53 and wife "M" 46, sons 7, 12, 18 years old and a 25 year old female servant, R. Fox. It is noted that none in the household can write, but all can apparently read except one son and the servant. In Samuel's family, both he and Melvina can apparently read and write.

Notes for William Norton Sr:

I have recently learned that Nellie Stonestreet's given name was actually Elianor, and that Nellie was her nickname. William Norton Sr. and his wife Elianor can be found in the 1776 census of Prince George, Maryland. At this census, William is 60 years of age (which would make him born about 1716) and Elianor is 38. Also found, is William Jr., a son from William Sr.'s first marriage, although I have not yet identified his first spouse. William and Elianor have quite a few children on this census, and two Negroe slaves. William Jr. is listed with his wife Mary, and their daughter Amelia. Several other Stonestreet families lived in Prince George during this census year, including another Elianor who was only 25, and I suspect was a cousin of Nellie's. The children I have listed for William and Elianor (Nellie) are: Alexander born before 1770 Nicholas 15 May 1770 Norman Abt 1775 Nellie Francis Mary Ann (or Jane) However, according to the census information there are several more children, both male and female, that I have yet to identify and locate in other records. Alexander Norton, one of the older brothers of Nicholas (and a son of William Sr.) was a Revolutionary War soldier. He can be found in the DAR index, but be careful because there are two Alexander Nortons. The Alexander who is married to Mary is the right one, the other (who has more information) is not.
